

Storyline Developer | Animation and Motion Graphics Designer (Adobe AE)

Freelance | Remote | North American Time Zones Only

About Arrowhead

Born in Austin. Raised in the World.

Arrowhead is an Austin, Texas creative boutique making a difference in communications since 1995. Our roots are in Texas but our journey has taken us around the world and into the stories of countless people, organizations, government agencies, NGOs, and corporations that have honed our skills and enriched our lives. Our documentary film productions, interactive trainings, animation, and branding and communications strategies have helped our subjects and clients share their stories, train their workforces, and get their messages across in social media, broadcast, print, and internal and external platforms.

What We Need

We are seeking an eLearning Developer with an Instructional and Motion Graphics Designer background. You will be available freelance, as needed, to build single or multi-chapter training in Storyline. Design assets, including video, will be provided.

What You'll Do

- Use custom design assets to build interactive trainings in Articulate Storyline.
- Add animation and motion to the graphics.
- Build interactive activities.
- Build Knowledge Checks (Quizzes).
- Be available to provide technical support and/or fixes for up to 30 days after the deliverables are accepted as final by the client.

What We're Looking For

- 4+ years of instructional design experience.
- Strong knowledge of Storyline trigger system and Javascript/HTML integration.
- Knowledge of publishing for LMS systems.
- Knowledge of accessibility compliance design.
- Knowledge of gamification elements.
- Ability to create custom design graphics using Adobe Illustrator.
- Animation and motion graphics skills using Adobe After Effects.
- Samples of work using professional voice talent
- Review links to previous Storyline projects

Additional Bonus Skills

- Deeper HTML5 animation knowledge for custom experiences or embedding in Storyline
- Lottie and animated SVG implementation

What We'll Pay You

Flat or hourly rate, depending on the scope of work. Please provide us with your hourly rate.
